USING THE VOTING RECORD

AAUW members and other concerned citizens can use the voting record to hold their senators and representatives accountable for their positions on AAUW's priority issues in a variety of ways:

- Refer to information in the voting record during community issue forums, candidate debates, or town hall meetings held by your members of Congress.
- Use the voting record when writing letters to the editor, blog posts, or op-eds about a legislator's position and AAUW's issues.
- Distribute copies at AAUW Action Fund voter education events and to local libraries and civic centers.
- Share the record with coalition partners, friends, family, and prospective AAUW members.
- Remove the vote charts and use the get-out-the-vote-themed poster on the opposite side to engage your community and legislators on AAUW's priority issues.

By taking these actions, you help educate your community on the issues and on policy makers' records.
